

TERM	DEFINITION	USE IN A SENTENCE	DRAW A PICTURE
COMPASS ROSE	Used on a map to show which way is north
CULTURAL	Things that humans add to the land (like a canal)
EQUATOR	We measure north and south from this imaginary line that runs around the world halfway between the North and South Poles Used as a starting point to measure degrees of latitude
KEY	Used on a map to show what the symbols mean

LATITUDE	Lines that run parallel to the equator The distance north or south of the equator
LONGITUDE	Lines that run north to south like the Prime Meridian The distance east or west of the Prime Meridian
MAP	A drawing of the earth shown on a flat surface
PHYSICAL	Things that are natural parts of the land (like a channel)

PRIME MERIDIAN	We measure east and west from this imaginary line that runs from the North Pole to the South Pole The starting point for measuring degrees of longitude
RELIEF	Changes in elevation over a given area of land A type of map that shows relative elevation by raised areas
SCALE	A line on a map that shows proportionate size		