

Interview

Directions

Interviewee's last name, first name. Type of interview (personal, telephone, email). Date of interview.

What the Directions Mean

Write last name of the person you interviewed. Comma. Space. Write the first name of the person you interviewed (and any middle name or initials). Period. Space.

Write the words: "Personal interview" or Telephone interview" or "Email interview." Period. Space.

Write the number of the day and the name of the month and the number of the year that the interview took place. Period.

NOTE: For an interview, I expect an annotation. That means that under the entry I want you to write a short paragraph telling me who the person is and why I should consider that person to be an expert in the field.

The entry is finished!

Samples

Stone, Linda. Personal interview. 11 March 2012.

Linda Stone is a potter. She teaches at Northwest College of Art. She sells her work online and in galleries in Poulsbo and on Bainbridge Island. She also works with schools as an artist in residence.

Turner, Jackson. Telephone interview. 15 April 2011.

Jackson Turner is a retired Naval officer. He served on nuclear submarines. He now volunteers at the Keyport Naval History Museum.